

HERMES NEWSLETTER N°2 November 2014

HERMES

Higher Education and Research area
EUROPE and MIDDLE EAST

Useful Links

HERMES Website:

www.hermes-mundus.eu

Contact

Coordinator :

Aix-Marseille University
(TETHYS)

Tethys-mundus-

hermes@univ-amu.fr

Co-coordinator :

Saint Joseph University

sri@su.j.edu.lb

Université Saint-Joseph

Selection Committee Meeting and Results

On the 28th and 29th of April, 2014, the HERMES consortium universities met at Nicosia, Cyprus to distribute the scholarships and discuss the organisation of the mobilities.

113 scholarships have been awarded for the 1st cohort (starting in September 2014) out of the 180 grants available within the HERMES programme:

26 for undergraduates - 28 for master students - 18 for doctorate candidates - 7 for post-doctorate candidates - 34 for academic or administrative staff.

The first HERMES mobilities

The host universities have now received the HERMES grantees to offer them the best conditions to study.

Applications for a mobility starting in September 2015

It is still possible to apply for a scholarship in the framework of the HERMES programme: 67 scholarships are available for the second cohort (September 2015).

The call for applications has been opened since the 3rd of November 2014 and will remain opened until the 24th December 2014 on the HERMES website :

<http://www.hermes-mundus.eu>

In order to maximize your chances :

A road-show was organised on the 22nd and 23rd October 2014 in to foster applications from Lebanese students and staff. This was the occasion for European and Middle-East universities to meet with the students.

Also, the "Guidelines for HERMES candidates" are at the disposal of the applicants on the HERMES website, explaining how to prepare the application and detailing each step of the process. These guidelines include three parts (1. Presentation of Hermes programme, 2. Before applying, 3. Application process).